Happy Fall everyone,
This is my favorite time of year with the beautiful colors of leaves and our sunny days shining on snow capped mountains and water. Just lovely. Hope all of you are doing well. We had another fantastic P2P Coordinator Training in Yakima at Parent to Parent Children's Village- they are the best hosts. Thank you. Lots of great information shared and mentoring of each other and also now County Coordinators will be able to train other parents in the Holland Groups, Yakima Parent to Parent and also in Telling Your Story with a Purpose, by Seattle Children's Hospital. Be on the look-out for these trainings in your area.
Have a great Thanksgiving with your family and friends.
Hugs, ~Susan and Jackie

TRAVIS ALERT LAW - On May 16th, 2017 at 10:30 am Governor Jay Inslee signed the Travis Alert Act into a Law. The Travis Alert Law is a two-part law. The first part of the law is to allow people who want to put their, or their loved one's information into the already established 9-1-1 system. The second part of the new law is to make sure all responders have training on how to help with people who have different disabilities including mental health, medical sensory, neurological and physical.
