Advocacy Day 2024

Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities (I/DD)

January 10, 2024

What Are Our Rights and How Do We Advocate?

Summary: People with disabilities desire to live, work, learn, and play in their community, requiring accommodations to get what they need to live their lives. Federal civil rights laws are there to make sure that people with disabilities are not denied services, provided unequal treatment, or relegated to segregated settings and to ensure they have equal opportunities to benefit from state services and programs.
