

Please Join Us!

Self-Advocates In Leadership (SAIL) meets on the second Tuesday of each month at the Sea-Tac Airport Conference Center. We are dedicated to the rights and power of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities through changing public policy in the legislature. For more information please contact Jessica Renner SAIL@arcwa.org or (360) 357-5596, ext. 3

2023
Washington
State
Legislative Agenda

Closing RHCs

SAIL will work with other stakeholders to close the state's institutions and advocate for the freedom of our people.

Healthcare and Provider Wages

The quality of personal supports relates directly to wages and training. SAIL will work with other stakeholders to fight for a better quality of life for direct service professionals.

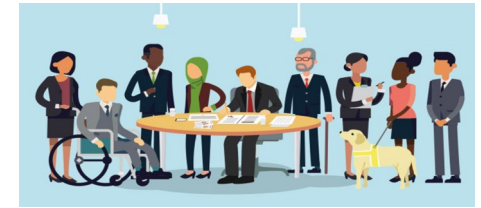

'Nothing About Us Without Us' Bill

SAIL supports the passage of a bill to provide meaningful and empowered inclusion of people with IDD from diverse backgrounds in the public policy process.

Housing and Residential Services

SAIL is committed to advocating on public policies for housing options, supports and services for people with IDD based on the values of diversity, equity and inclusion.

Employment, School-To-Work and Education

SAIL promotes public policies that allow people with IDD to thrive in the transition to adulthood through options for employment and education.

Transportation

Access to reliable, safe and accessible transportation is necessary for everyone to be equally included. SAIL is committed to working with policymakers to increase transportation options.